

Customs power of attorney IMPORT: Customs clearance order / cost transfer confirmation

Client:
Contact person:
Street:		Post code / City:
Tel. / Fax.:		Email
VAT ID No.:		EORI / customs no.:

Power of attorney:

The client authorizes LGI Logistics Group International GmbH (LGI) based on the Customs Department's General Terms and Conditions (Customs General T&C 2023), to handle customs for import consignments on our behalf and for our account and to undertake all actions associated with customs clearance.

The Customs General T&Cs are available at Guidelines & documents | lgi \(lgigroup.com\). Upon signing the document, the customer recognizes the validity of the current Customs General T&Cs. It is explicitly referred to the liability restrictions of the General German Freight Forwarders' Standard Terms and Conditions 2017 (ADSp 2017). The Customs General T&Cs refer to ADSp 2017.

The power of attorney is valid with signature from the date of issue until 31 December of the following year.

Information on import consignments:

All information and details required for issuing an import declaration are provided to LGI directly from the client.

Declaration process:

The client has a simplified customs procedure: Authorization No.: _____

If the client does not have their own official customs authorizations for the simplified customs procedures, LGI will complete customs clearance using what is referred to as a standard procedure. LGI uses its own software for customs clearance.

The client declares:

- The client is the buyer/importer of the goods being cleared.
- The client is eligible for full deduction of value added tax: YES [] NO []
- The client is aware that through the customs declaration they become declarant under the provisions of customs law and are obliged to pay all import fees including all customs penalties and late payment penalties.
- The client assumes the responsibility for the completeness and correctness of all documents and information required to execute orders. LGI is not obligated to check the documents for completeness and correctness.

AEO certification is available: Authorization No.: _____

(In case the AEO status has been temporarily or finally suspended, we are obligated to inform LGI immediately.)

AEO certification is not available:

In this case the following AEO Security Declaration is to be filled in.

Place and date: _____

Stamp and legally binding signature of the client:

Security Declaration for Authorized Economic Operators (AEO)

This declaration was issued to:

LGI Logistics Group International GmbH
Konrad-Zuse-Straße 10
71034 Böblingen Germany

LGI Deutschland GmbH
Konrad-Zuse-Straße 10
71034 Böblingen Germany

Both companies are hereafter referred to as LGI.

We hereby declare that in the context of our business relationship with LGI that goods, which are subject to services of LGI in the context of orders for customs clearance:

- are produced, manufactured, stored, forwarded, which are delivered to or which are taken for delivery from LGI as well as goods that will become subject to customs declaration on my behalf.
- are protected against unauthorized interference during production, storage, processing, loading and transport.
- certified staff is customers, suppliers, as well employed for production, storage, processing, loading and transport of the goods regarding EU Regulation 881/2002, 2580/2001 und 753/2011.
- business partners who are acting on our behalf are informed that they are to ensure the supply chain security.

The Security Declaration is valid with signature from the date of issue until 31 December of the following year.

Name of company: _____

Street: _____ Postal Code: _____

Tel./Fax.: _____ City: _____

E-Mail: _____ Country: _____

Name of Authorized Signatory*: _____

Position: _____

Place and date of issue: _____

Signature: _____

) Authorized Signatory according to the commercial register excerpt